Ha - ving acquired an im - ma te - ri - al life, and having been brought before the godless tri - bu - nal, thou didst stand, wear - ing the radiance of God like flo - wers, arrayed in di - vine might, O vic - tor - i - ous and hon - ored Cath - er - ine.

and thou didst mock the ty rant's com - mand and didst put an end to the audacious discourse of the rhe - tors, O much suf - fer - ing one.

Both now and ever and unto the ages of a - ges A - - - men.

Da - vid foretold thee, O all pure one, foreseeing the sanctification of entry into the temple,

Therein do the ends of the earth holding festival today, glorify thee, O all hymned one. For, O Mother of the Word of life, who before giving birth wast Virgin and after giving birth re-mained in-cor-rupt, today Zachariah maketh merry in the Temple, accept-ing thee, O - Mis - tress; and the Holy of holies re - joi - ceth receiving thee, the well - spring of our life.

Wherefore we also cry out in psalms to thee:

Beseech thy Son and our God in our be - half, that He grant us great mer - cy.
